Sandmarsh Wins in Best Field the Day.

BY GEORGE B. MORRIS.

BY GEORGE B. MORRIS.

Havre De Grace. Md., April 16.—A card of seven races. Including the Harford handicap, with 1,500 added, was run eff teday at the Harford County course.

The attendance was large for the opening day, and many persons from Philadelphia, New York, Washington and other nearby points were on hand.

The best field of the day went to the post in the Harford handicap, including Sandmarsh, Leochares, Pennant, Kewessa, Jo Lillis, Robert Bradley, and others of lessor light. Starter Milton got his field away in quick time, and as the barrier was sprung Sandmarsh went to the front and retained this position until the winning post was reached. Leochares made a strong bid for the honors, but could never get to the winner. Pennant was away badly and made a lot of distance, and probably with better racing luck might have wen. As it was he was running over his field at the ctul.

Reprobate might have won the sixth race had he not lived up to his reputation as a bad actor. He did his best to run away while going to the post and after cutting up for some time he finally got away. He opened up a commanding lead and held the same to within twenty yards of the wire, where Hyannis coming from away back just got up in time to beat him a nose. There are seven races on the card for tomorrow, including a steeplechase at about two miles. Summaries:

By JOHN A. DUGAN. By JOHN A. DUGAN.

New York, April 16.—Old man weather played a real joke on this great little village today and its fans and fanneites, when into its midst jumped a touch of the frozen North. Prospects and promises were issued before sundown on the Sabbath that Manhattan today would be in a line with Palm Beach and Panama, but in the wee hours this morning the North Pole sent a few of its advance guards into this burg in the form of a stiff Northern wind and a freezing chilly air which caused Capt. Til Huston to hold back his forces of Yanks from advancing to Coogan's Bluff, up in the Broux, where a scrimmage was to be staged with Clark Griffith's military ball club from the National Capital. club from the National Capital.

At a late hour tonight prospects for the clubs meeting tomorrow looked bright, but from the way that the weather man has been treating our brave ath-letes since leaving their Augusta train-ing camp anything is to be expected.
